RULE 16A NOTICE

TAKE NOTICE that the following constitutional issues are raised in the Founding Affidavit in Part B of the above application:

1. Whether the respondent's decision to terminate the banking facilities of the applicants constitutes unfair discrimination;

2. Whether the respondent should be directed under the Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act 4 of 2000 to make specific opportunities and privileges unfairly denied in the circumstances (i.e. the threatened bank accounts) available to the applicants.

TAKE NOTICE FURTHER that the applicants intend to argue that the respondent's termination decision negatively impacts on a number of the applicants' constitutional rights, including the right to equality, the right to property, the right to trade and occupation, and the right to dignity.

TAKE NOTICE FURTHER that any interested party may, with the written consent of all the parties to the proceedings, given not later than 10 days after the filing of the affidavit or pleading in which the constitutional issue was first raised, be admitted therein as amicus curiae upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon in writing by the parties.

TAKE NOTICE FURTHER that the written consent referred to above shall, within five days of its having been obtained, be lodged with the registrar and the amicus curiae shall, in addition to any other provision, comply with the times agreed upon for the lodging of written argument.

TAKE NOTICE FURTHER that the terms and conditions agreed upon may be amended by the court.

TAKE NOTICE FURTHER that if the interested party is unable to obtain the written consent as contemplated herein, he or she may, within five days of the expiry of the 10-day period prescribed above, apply to the court to be admitted as an amicus curiae in the proceedings. Such application shall –

- (a) briefly describe the interest of the amicus curiae in the proceedings;
- (b) clearly and succinctly set out the submissions which will be advanced by the amicus curiae, the relevance thereof to the proceedings and his or her reasons for believing that the submissions will assist the court and are different from those of the other parties; and
- (c) be served upon all parties to the proceedings.

TAKE NOTICE FURTHER that any party to the proceedings who wishes to oppose an application to be admitted as an amicus curiae, shall file an answering affidavit within five days of the service of such application upon such party. The answering affidavit shall clearly and succinctly set out the grounds of such opposition.

Signed at DURBAN on this day of <sup>14th</sup> NOVEMBER 2022.
