

Dream Sets (Pty) Limited v Strike Productions (Pty) Limited

Summary-Costs

The Plaintiff brought an application for costs in respect of a number of interlocutory application brought by or against it by the Defendant. The court pointed out that the purpose of awarding costs is to indemnify a successful party who has incurred expenses in instituting or defending an action. The court ordered the Defendant to pay all the costs of the proceedings.