HIGH ALERT: SCAM WARNING!!!

TO ALL SUPPLIERS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS OF THE

GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS

It has come to the attention of the GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS that there are certain unscrupulous companies and individuals who are defrauding unsuspecting businesses disguised as representatives of the Government Printing Works (GPW) .

The scam involves the fraudsters using the letterhead of GPW to send out fake tender bids to companies and requests to supply equipment and goods.

Although the contact person's name on the letter may be of an existing official, the contact details on the letter are not the same as the Government Printing Works'. When searching on the Internet for the address of the company that has sent the fake tender document, the address does not exist.

The banking details are in a private name and not company name. Government will never ask you to deposit any funds for any business transaction. GPW has alerted the relevant law enforcement authorities to investigate this scam to protect legitimate businesses as well as the name of the organisation.

Example of e-mails these fraudsters are using:

PROCUREMENT@GPW-GOV.ORG

GPW has an official email with the domain as @gpw.gov.za

Government e-mails DO NOT have org in their e-mail addresses. All of these fraudsters also use the same or very similar telephone numbers. Although such number with an area code 012 looks like a landline, it is not fixed to any property.

GPW will never send you an e-mail asking you to supply equipment and goods without a purchase/ order number. GPW does not procure goods for another level of Government. The organisation will not be liable for actions that result in companies or individuals being resultant victims of such a scam.

Government Printing Works gives businesses the opportunity to supply goods and services through RFQ / Tendering process. In order to be eligible to bid to provide goods and services, suppliers must be registered on the National Treasury's Central Supplier Database (CSD). To be registered, they must meet all current legislative requirements (e.g. have a valid tax clearance certificate and be in good standing with the South African Revenue Services - SARS).

The tender process is managed through the Supply Chain Management (SCM) system of the department. SCM is highly regulated to minimise the risk of fraud, and to meet objectives which include value for money, open and effective competition, equitability, accountability, fair dealing, transparency and an ethical approach. Relevant legislation, regulations, policies, guidelines and instructions can be found on the tender's website.

Fake Tenders

National Treasury's CSD has launched the Government Order Scam campaign to combat fraudulent requests for quotes (RFQs). Such fraudulent requests have resulted in innocent companies losing money. We work hard at preventing and fighting fraud, but criminal activity is always a risk.

How tender scams work

There are many types of tender scams. Here are some of the more frequent scenarios:

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to a company to invite it to urgently supply goods. Shortly after the company has submitted its quote, it receives notification that it has won the tender. The company delivers the goods to someone who poses as an official or at a fake site. The Department has no idea of this transaction made in its name. The company is then never paid and suffers a loss.

OR

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to Company A to invite it to urgently supply goods. Typically, the tender specification is so unique that only Company B (a fictitious company created by the fraudster) can supply the goods in question.

Shortly after Company A has submitted its quote it receives notification that it has won the tender. Company A orders the goods and pays a deposit to the fictitious Company B. Once Company B receives the money, it disappears. Company A's money is stolen in the process.

Protect yourself from being scammed

- If you are registered on the supplier databases and you receive a request to tender or quote that seems to be from a government department, contact the department to confirm that the request is legitimate. Do not use the contact details on the tender document as these might be fraudulent.
- Compare tender details with those that appear in the Tender Bulletin, available online at www.gpwonline.co.za
- Make sure you familiarise yourself with how government procures goods and services. Visit the tender website for more information on how to tender.
- If you are uncomfortable about the request received, consider visiting the government department and/or the place of delivery and/or the service provider from whom you will be sourcing the goods.
- In the unlikely event that you are asked for a deposit to make a bid, contact the SCM unit of the department in question to ask whether this is in fact correct.

Neither party will be bound by any express, tacit or implied term, representation, warranty, promise or the like not recorded herein. The Agreement supersedes and replaces all prior commitments, undertakings or representations, whether oral or written, between the parties in respect of the subject matter thereof.

THE INSTALMENT SALE AGREEMENT AND THE NATIONAL CREDIT ACT 4. On or about 18 FEBRUARY 2022 the Plaintiff (represented by a duly authorized representative) and the Defendant (acting personally) concluded a written Instalment Sale Agreement ("The Agreement"). A copy of the Agreement is annexed hereto marked "A1 - A16", compromising of Part A "Pre-Agreement Quotation/Costs of Credit" and Part B - Terms and conditions for Vehicle and Asset Finance Instalment Agreement (Natural). 5. Prior to concluding the Agreement, the Plaintiff conducted a credit assessment in relation to the Defendant (as a consumer), as required by Section 81(2) of the NCA. 8. The Plaintiff determined based on inter alia the representations made to it by the Defendant that the Defendant could afford the loan granted to the Defendant. The credit granted to the Defendant in terms of the Agreement was thus not granted recklessly as envisaged in Section 81(1) of the NCA. THE TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT 9.

The material, alternatively implied terms of the Agreement, were inter alia, as follows: 9.1 The Plaintiff would sell to the Defendant, who would purchase from the Plaintiff, a 2015 BMW 320D M SPORT A/T (F30) with engine number 53959167 and chassis number WBA3D36020NT54158 ("the Goods"); 9.2 The principal debt to be advanced to the Defendant or on his behalf under the Agreement was the amount of R284 857.51; 9.3 The total cost of the Agreement including interest, costs and charges would be the amount of R413 532.72, which would be repaid to the Plaintiff by the Defendant by way of 72 consecutive monthly instalments of R5 743.51, commending on 30 MARCH 2022, with a final instalment payable on 29 FEBRUARY 2028. Default 9.6 Default in terms of the Agreement would occur if, inter alia : 9.6.1 the Defendant failed to make payment of any amount payable to the Plaintiff under the Agreement on the due date therefor; 9.6.2 the Defendant breaches any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement and fails to remedy the breach within the time period specified in the Plaintiff's written notice to the Defendant within which to do so; 9.6.3 the Defendant generally does or omits to do anything which may affect the Plaintiff's rights in terms of the Agreement. 9.7 If the Defendant is in default under the Agreement, the Plaintiff would be entitled to give the Defendant written notice of such default, requesting the Defendant to rectify the default within 10 (ten) business days, and propose that the Defendant refer the Agreement to a debt counsellor, alternative dispute resolution agent, consumer court or ombud with jurisdiction, with the intent that the parties resolve any dispute under the Agreement or develop and agree on a plan to bring the Defendant's repayments up to date. 9.8 If the Defendant failed to respond to the written notice or rejected the proposals set out therein, and/or remained in default for 20 (twenty) business days after the date of the written notice, the Plaintiff was entitled to commence legal proceedings against the Defendant, to : 9.8.1 claim repayment of all repayments and any other amounts owing to the Plaintiff, whether due or not; and /or 9.8.2 cancel the Agreement and claim return of the Goods. 9.9 If the Defendant is in default under the Agreement and the Plaintiff exercises its rights in terms of the default provisions of the Agreement, and the Defendant disputes the Plaintiff's rights to do so, the Defendant must continue to pay the amounts owing to the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff's acceptance of such payments will not affect any of the Plaintiff's rights in terms of this Agreement or in law. Addressees for Notice 9.10 The Defendant chose as his address for the serving of legal notices in terms of the Agreement ("the notice address"), the address reflected in Part A of the Agreement; 9.11 Any notice sent to the Defendant by prepaid registered post will be deemed to have been received on the 5th (fifth) business day after posting; 9.12 Where the Post Office does not effect street delivery at the notice address, the Plaintiff may send any notices in terms of the Agreement to the Defendant's post office box number. General 9.13 The Plaintiff would provide the Defendant with a statement of account periodically and in the frequency and medium selected in the application form. The Defendant may dispute all or part of the statement delivered to the Defendant by sending the Plaintiff a written notice of the Defendant's objections. Failure to receive a statement will not entitle the Defendant to refuse or fail to pay any amount that is due to the Plaintiff; 9.14 Where the value of the Goods must be determined for any purpose related to the Agreement, and the Plaintiff is required to appoint a valuator, the Defendant authorized the Plaintiff to appoint a valuator of the Plaintiff's choice. The value will be net of all costs of transportation, storage, valuation and restoring the Goods for the purposes of resale. The Defendant agreed and undertook to accept such valuation; 9.15 Any agreed changes to the Agreement would be made in writing and be signed by both the Plaintiff and the Defendant; 9.16 Unless specifically stated and agreed, any amendment to the Agreement would not create a new agreement; 9.17 To the maximum extent permitted by law, any special consideration the Plaintiff may give the Defendant will not be seen as a waiver of any of the Plaintiff's rights under the Agreement or in any way affect any of the Plaintiff's rights against the Defendant; 9.18 A certificate signed by any of the Plaintiff's managers, whose appointment need not be proved, will on its mere production be sufficient proof of any amount due and/or owing by the Defendant in terms of the Agreement, unless the contrary is proved; 9.19 If any of the clauses in the Agreement are found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, this will not affect the remaining causes in the Agreement, i.e. all provisions of the Agreement are, notwithstanding the manner in which they have been grouped together or linked grammatically, severable from each other. Any provision of the Agreement which is or becomes unenforceable whether due to voidness, invalidity, illegality, unlawfulness or for any other reason, shall, only to the extent it is so unenforceable, be struck out (treated as pro non scripto) and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain of full force and effect. The parties declare that it is their intention that the Agreement would be executed without such unenforceable provision if they were aware of such unenforceability at the time of execution thereof. 9.20 The Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the parties in relation to the subject matter thereof. Neither party will be bound by any express, tacit or implied term, representation, warranty, promise or the like not recorded herein. The Agreement supersedes and replaces all prior commitments, undertakings or representations, whether oral or written, between the parties in respect of the subject matter thereof.
